Declutter Webpages for Easier Reading

Do you love sending kids to a website to read an article but find they get distracted by all the ads and clutter on a page? Here are two amazing tools you can use to declutter a webpage for easy viewing.
Google Chrome & Outline

Remove ads, comments, and related links. Read comfortably. Outline.com is a free service that makes websites more readable.   They remove the clutter, like ads, related links, and comments—so you can read comfortably. To use the extension, click the Outline icon and it will automatically remove the clutter.
